

GET READY TO...

The NCAA and Dallas Local Organizing Committee are excited to invite your classroom to Read to the Final Four. Join your classroom in reading each week and competing against third grade classrooms across Dallas to read the most minutes leading up to the Women's Final Four. During each round of the reading challenge, the winning classrooms will be highlighted and receive special prizes. The Final Four schools with the most average minutes read will win a trip to the American Airlines Center to watch the practices of the teams competing in the Women's Final Four.

JANUARY 23 - MARCH 19
